

CANDIDATE HANDBOOK

Congratulations on your decision to run for a municipal office in the Village of Pewaukee! Please read this booklet for important information about the process of running for an elected office, it should answer many of your questions. Additional information regarding Campaign Finance is a good resource and you are encouraged to read the Campaign Finance Overview manual to review reporting requirements, contribution and disbursements, and attribution statements. Our doors are always open if you need additional information.

If, during your campaign, you plan to advertise your candidacy in the paper or by posting signs around town, please read the Disclaimers Section for important information. There is also information included about where signs can be placed. If you have questions or need more clarification about where signs can and cannot be placed, please contact Village Hall.

The first day you may circulate nomination papers is December 1st. You must obtain no fewer than 20 signatures and not more than 100 signatures on the Nomination Papers. Signatures are only considered valid if they are from Village of Pewaukee residents. Those signing must also print their name in the box where indicated. To review the requirements regarding nomination papers, please review the Candidate Ballot Access Procedures manual. A ballot access checklist is included in the candidate packet for ease of gathering all information as required.

All completed documents must be returned to Village Hall no later than 5:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday of January.

The placement of names on the ballot is done by a 'Draw- By- Lot' process on the second Tuesday of January, at 10:00 a.m. You, or a representative, are welcome to attend and observe this process at Village Hall.

The last part of this booklet explains the procedure for Election Day and obtaining the results of the election. You, or a representative on your behalf, are encouraged to be present at the end of the election to learn the results firsthand.

Thank you for your interest in serving your community and country as an elected official!

Village Clerk

DISCLAIMERS
(State Statute 11.1303)

Every communication that is paid for by political funds must contain a disclaimer or attribution statement identifying the source of the funds paying for the communication. This includes every printed advertisement, billboard, handbill, sample ballot, television or radio advertisement, or other communication paid for by political funds. Disclaimers should be included on each separate page of political communication, including letterhead and enclosures. Disclaimers should also be on items such as T-shirts, bumper stickers, and yard signs. The disclaimer must use the words "Paid for by" (abbreviations should not be used for this language) followed by the name of the committee or group making the payment or assuming responsibility for the communication and the name of the treasurer or other authorized agent. When the communication is being paid for through an in-kind contribution, it must bear the disclaimer of the recipient campaign committee. Abbreviations may not be used for the name of a candidate or campaign committee.

The disclaimers need to be legible, readable, and readily accessible in a clear and conspicuous manner that gives the recipient of the communication adequate notice of the identity of the person making the payment or reimbursement or assuming responsibility for the communication.

No disclaimer is required on:

- Personal correspondence not reproduced by machine for distribution.
- A single personal item that is not reproduced or manufactured by machine or other equipment.
- Nomination papers even if the papers contain biographical information.
- Pins, buttons, pens, pencils, balloons, tickets, skywriting, and similar small items on which a disclaimer cannot be conveniently printed.
- Small online ads and similar electronic communication where the language required by §11.1303 could not conveniently be included, and either that link directly to a website that includes the required attribution, or provide an automatic display that includes the attribution.

FORMATS FOR DISCLAIMERS

- When a communication is paid for by a candidate without a committee, or paid for by an individual, the disclaimer should read: "Paid for by Mary Smith".
- When the communication is paid for by the campaign committee of a candidate or by a political committee, the disclaimer should read: "Paid for by Friends of Mary Smith for Mayor, John Jones, Treasurer" or "Paid for by the Committee for Voters, John Jones, Treasurer."
- When the communication is an independent expenditure, either supporting or opposing a candidate, the disclaimer should read: "Paid for by the Committee for Voters, John Jones, Treasurer. Not authorized by any candidate or candidate's agent or committee".

CAMPAIGN ATTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS

(State Statutes Section ETH 1.96)

- Disclaimers need to be written legible, readable, and readily accessible in a sans-serif font.
- Minimum font size is dependent on the size of the sign/document and the attribution or written communication sizes and minimums are below.
 - If less than 8.5" x 11" attribution must be printed in at least 10-point font
 - If 8.5" x 11" up to 24" x 36" attribution must be printed in at least 12-point font
 - Letters must appear in at least 4% of the vertical height of the written communication.

CAMPAIGN SIGNAGE ORDINANCE

(Village Ordinance Section 70.111.b.1)

Please review the following information regarding placement of election signage in the Village of Pewaukee:

"(b) The following temporary signs shall also be exempted from sections 70.105—70.109 above subject to the following conditions:

- (1) During the period of time that is described in Wis Stats Section 12.04 as the "Election campaign period" plus up to 2 days thereafter, when an election or voting matter is scheduled to be conducted in/by the Village of Pewaukee on any matter whatsoever, all properties in the Village of Pewaukee shall be permitted up to one additional temporary sign display per voting item on the ballot per property as follows and in addition to any/all other signs otherwise permitted by this Section:

(a) B-1 – B-5, IPS, P-1:

Up to 1 such sign per street frontage (or in the case of parcels with frontage on two roadways or a roadway plus lake frontage which may be allowed up to two such signs, one facing each roadway or one facing the lake frontage and one facing the roadway) not to exceed 9 sq.ft. in area and 5 feet in height. In lieu of these individual signs allocated per voting item, a property owner may utilize that total square footage as would be allowed under the individual signs provision, and accumulate that square footage into fewer but larger signs (i.e. 6 balloted voting items = 45 square feet of permitted signage per street/lake frontage) so a property owner may choose to place one 45 square foot sign per street/lake frontage, or two 22.5 square foot signs, or four 11.5 square foot... signs instead of the individual signs per ballot item. Any permitted signs larger than 9 square feet in area shall not exceed 7 feet in height. Such larger signs shall not be electrically illuminated.

(b) R-1 – R-6, R-5 (LO), RM and MH:

Up to 1 such sign per street frontage (or in the case of parcels with frontage on two roadways or a roadway plus lake frontage which may be allowed up to two such signs, one facing each roadway or one facing the lake frontage and one facing the roadway) not to exceed 6 sq.ft. in area and 4 feet in height. Such signs shall not be electrically illuminated. In lieu of these individual signs allocated per voting item, a property owner may utilize that total square footage as would be allowed under the individual signs provision, and accumulate that square footage into fewer but larger signs (i.e. 6 balloted voting items = 36 square feet of permitted signage per street/lake frontage) so a property owner may choose to place one 36 square foot sign per street/lake frontage, or two 18 square foot signs, or four 9 square foot... signs instead of the individual signs per ballot item. Any permitted signs larger than 6 square feet in area shall not exceed 7 feet in height. Such larger signs shall not be electrically illuminated.”

ELECTION DAY CAMPAIGN RESTRICTIONS

(State Statute 12.03 & 12.04)

- Persons are prohibited from electioneering on public property within 100 feet of an entrance to a building containing a polling place, or engage in any activity which disrupts voting or interferes with the orderly conduct of the election. This prohibition does not apply to electioneering on private property within 100 feet of an entrance to a polling place. The placement of election signs on private property within the 100-foot radius is permissible.
- State Statute 12.04 (2) states that any individual may place a sign containing a political message upon residential property owned or occupied by that individual during an election campaign period. The Village Clerk or Village Police Officers may remove posters or other advertising which is placed in violation of this section.

ELECTION DAY

- Candidates are allowed at the polls on Election Day to vote, but are not allowed to perform any electioneering during voting hours.
- Candidates or their representatives may observe the closing of the polls. Polls will close at 8:00 p.m. and dependent on the electors, the election workers may need to process absentee ballots after 8:00 p.m. Every effort is made during the voting hours of 7:00 a.m. – 8:00 p.m. to process absentee ballots, but some circumstances may prevent them from processing during regular hours. Totals will not be announced until after all ballots have been processed.
- Candidates or other observers will be designated to a specific area within the polling place. Candidates or Observers may not assist in the election process. They may ask questions, but cannot assist with the poll book, ballots or any other process that may be occurring at the close of the polls.
- The Chief Inspector or the Clerk will announce the election results after all ballots have been processed.

CAMPAIGN FINANCING (State Statutes Chapter 11)

All Candidates must fill out the Campaign Finance Committee/Conduit Registration Statement (CF-1). Effective January 23, 2023, candidates are no longer required to file a campaign finance report each year if their status stays the same.

Candidates are exempt from filing a Campaign Finance Report if they meet the following criteria:

- The candidate anticipates that he/she will not accept contributions, make disbursements, or incur loans and other obligations in an aggregate amount exceeding $2,500 in a calendar year.
- The Candidate anticipates that he/she will not accept any contribution or cumulative contributions from a single source exceeding $500 in a calendar year.
- The candidate or treasurer signs and dates the request for exemption on the Campaign Registration Statements.
- The $500 limit on contributions from a single source does apply to contributions from a candidate's personal funds for his/her own campaign if the candidate's contributions total $2,500 or less in a calendar year.
- When the candidate is exempt, he/she is not required to file any Campaign Finance Reports. However, the candidate or treasurer is required to keep financial records adequate to meet the requirements of campaign finance law. This means that a record must be kept of all contributions to the committee and of all expenditures.

- A candidate who is exempt from filing campaign finance reports may use a personal account as the campaign depository. A separate campaign depository account is not required.
- If a decision is made at a later date to exceed the $2,500 limit on contributions and disbursements, or to raise more than $500 from a single source for the campaign during a calendar year, the candidate must amend the campaign registration statement immediately.
- A candidate is required to store records for 3 years. Once the candidate completes the three-year mark the candidate may destroy the records after July 1 of that year.

If NOT claiming the exemption from financial reporting requirements, please see the Campaign Finance Checklist for further instructions and a checklist of necessary forms and deadlines. You will also need to obtain the Campaign Finance Overview – Local Candidates Manual from the Clerk’s office.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING NOMINATION PAPERS FOR NONPARTISAN OFFICE

This is a sample nomination paper form. It conforms to the statutory requirements for nomination papers for nonpartisan office. All information concerning the candidate must be completed in full before circulating this form to obtain signatures of electors. All information concerning the signing electors and the circulator must be completed in full before filing with the appropriate filing officer. This form may be reproduced in any way. A candidate's picture and biographical data may also be added to this form. The Wisconsin Elections Commission has determined that no disclaimer or other attribution statement is required on nomination papers. Candidates are advised to send a sample of their completed form to the filing officer for review before circulation.

Candidate's Name - Insert the candidate's name. A candidate may use his or her full legal name, or any combination of first name, middle name, and initials or nickname with last name. The Wisconsin Elections Commission has determined that, absent any evidence of an attempt to manipulate the electoral process, candidates are permitted to choose any form of their name, including nicknames, by which they want to appear on the ballot.

No titles are permitted. In addition, names such as “Red” or “Skip” are permitted, but names which have an apparent electoral purpose or benefit, such as “Lower taxes,” “None of the above” or “Lower Spending” are not permitted. It is also not permissible to add nicknames in quotes or parentheses between first and last names. For example, John “Jack” Jones or John (Jack) Jones are not acceptable, but John Jones, Jack Jones or John Jack Jones are acceptable.

Candidate's Address – Insert the candidate's residential address (no P.O. Box addresses) and the municipality for voting purposes. Indicate if the municipality of residence is a town, village, or city. If a candidate's mailing address is different from the residential address or voting municipality, a complete mailing address must also be given.

Date of Election - Insert the date of the election. If the nomination paper is being circulated for a spring election, the date is the first Tuesday in April. If the election is a special nonpartisan election, the date of the special election must be listed.

Title of Office - The name of the office must be listed along with any branch, district, or seat number (if applicable) that clearly identifies the office the candidate is seeking. If necessary, the name of the jurisdiction that identifies the office, such as Dane County Circuit Court Judge, Branch 3, must also be listed.

Name of Jurisdiction - The nomination papers must also indicate the municipality or jurisdiction in which the signing electors are qualified to vote, as it relates to the office sought by the candidate named on the nomination paper. For example, for a statewide office the jurisdiction is the State of Wisconsin. Others may be the county, town, village, city, aldermanic district, school district, or town sanitary district, as required.

Signatures and Printed Name of Electors - Only qualified electors of the jurisdiction or the district the candidate seeks to represent may sign the nomination papers. Each signer must also legibly print their name. Each elector must provide their residential address (no P.O. Box addresses), including any street, fire or rural route number, box number (if rural route) and street or road name, and municipality of residence. A post office box number alone does not show where the elector actually resides. The name of the Municipality of Residence must be listed for each signing elector and must clearly identify the town, village or city where the elector's voting residence is located. The date the elector signed the nomination paper, including month, day and year, must be indicated. Ditto marks that follow correct and complete address or date information are acceptable. The circulator may add any missing or illegible address or date information before the papers are filed with the filing officer.

Signature of Circulator - The circulator should carefully read the language of the Certification of Circulator. THE CIRCULATOR MUST PERSONALLY PRESENT THE NOMINATION PAPER TO EACH SIGNER. THE NOMINATION PAPER MAY NOT BE LEFT UNATTENDED ON COUNTERS OR POSTED ON BULLETIN BOARDS. The circulator's complete residential address including municipality of residence must be listed in the certification. After obtaining signatures of electors, the circulator must sign and date the certification.

Other Instructions - Candidates and circulators should review Ch. Wisconsin Elections Commission §§ 2.05, 2.07, Wis. Adm. Code.

- Original nomination papers must be in the physical custody of the appropriate filing officer by the filing deadline. A postmark on the filing deadline is NOT sufficient. Nomination papers CANNOT be faxed to the filing officer. Ch. Wisconsin Elections Commission § 6.04(2), Wis. Adm. Code.
- Nomination papers with the required number of signatures must be filed with the appropriate filing officer no later than 5:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday in January (or the next day if the first Tuesday is a holiday) before the spring election. Special elections may have different filing deadlines. Check with the filing officer.
- In order for a candidate's name to be placed on the ballot, a candidate must file a Campaign Registration Statement (ETHCF-1), a Declaration of Candidacy (EL-162), and Nomination Papers (EL-169) containing the appropriate number of signatures for the office sought no later than the filing deadline. Wis. Stat. § 8.10(3). Candidates for state office and municipal judge must also file a statement of economic interests with the Wisconsin Ethics Commission by the third business day after the nomination paper filing deadline. Wis. Stat. § 19.43. If any one of these required forms is not filed by the deadline, the candidate's name will not be placed on the ballot. Wis. Stat. § 8.30.
- If a candidate or circulator has any questions, he or she should contact the filing officer.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING NOMINATION PAPERS FOR NONPARTISAN OFFICE

This is a sample nomination paper form. It conforms to the statutory requirements for nomination papers for nonpartisan office. All information concerning the candidate must be completed in full before circulating this form to obtain signatures of electors. All information concerning the signing electors and the circulator must be completed in full before filing with the appropriate filing officer. This form may be reproduced in any way. A candidate's picture and biographical data may also be added to this form. The Wisconsin Elections Commission has determined that no disclaimer or other attribution statement is required on nomination papers. Candidates are advised to send a sample of their completed form to the filing officer for review before circulation.

Candidate's Name - Insert the candidate's name. A candidate may use his or her full legal name, or any combination of first name, middle name, and initials or nickname with last name. The Wisconsin Elections Commission has determined that, absent any evidence of an attempt to manipulate the electoral process, candidates are permitted to choose any form of their name, including nicknames, by which they want to appear on the ballot.

No titles are permitted. In addition, names such as “Red” or “Skip” are permitted, but names which have an apparent electoral purpose or benefit, such as “Lower taxes,” “None of the above” or “Lower Spending” are not permitted. It is also not permissible to add nicknames in quotes or parentheses between first and last names. For example, John “Jack” Jones or John (Jack) Jones are not acceptable, but John Jones, Jack Jones or John Jack Jones are acceptable.

Candidate's Address – Insert the candidate's residential address (no P.O. Box addresses) and the municipality for voting purposes. Indicate if the municipality of residence is a town, village, or city. If a candidate's mailing address is different from the residential address or voting municipality, a complete mailing address must also be given.

Date of Election - Insert the date of the election. If the nomination paper is being circulated for a spring election, the date is the first Tuesday in April. If the election is a special nonpartisan election, the date of the special election must be listed.

Title of Office - The name of the office must be listed along with any branch, district, or seat number (if applicable) that clearly identifies the office the candidate is seeking. If necessary, the name of the jurisdiction that identifies the office, such as Dane County Circuit Court Judge, Branch 3, must also be listed.

Name of Jurisdiction - The nomination papers must also indicate the municipality or jurisdiction in which the signing electors are qualified to vote, as it relates to the office sought by the candidate named on the nomination paper. For example, for a statewide office the jurisdiction is the State of Wisconsin. Others may be the county, town, village, city, aldermanic district, school district, or town sanitary district, as required.

Signatures and Printed Name of Electors - Only qualified electors of the jurisdiction or the district the candidate seeks to represent may sign the nomination papers. Each signer must also legibly print their name. Each elector must provide their residential address (no P.O. Box addresses), including any street, fire or rural route number, box number (if rural route) and street or road name, and municipality of residence. A post office box number alone does not show where the elector actually resides. The name of the Municipality of Residence must be listed for each signing elector and must clearly identify the town, village or city where the elector's voting residence is located. The date the elector signed the nomination paper, including month, day and year, must be indicated. Ditto marks that follow correct and complete address or date information are acceptable. The circulator may add any missing or illegible address or date information before the papers are filed with the filing officer.

Signature of Circulator - The circulator should carefully read the language of the Certification of Circulator. THE CIRCULATOR MUST PERSONALLY PRESENT THE NOMINATION PAPER TO EACH SIGNER. THE NOMINATION PAPER MAY NOT BE LEFT UNATTENDED ON COUNTERS OR POSTED ON BULLETIN BOARDS. The circulator's complete residential address including municipality of residence must be listed in the certification. After obtaining signatures of electors, the circulator must sign and date the certification.

Other Instructions - Candidates and circulators should review Ch. Wisconsin Elections Commission §§ 2.05, 2.07, Wis. Adm. Code.

- Original nomination papers must be in the physical custody of the appropriate filing officer by the filing deadline. A postmark on the filing deadline is NOT sufficient. Nomination papers CANNOT be faxed to the filing officer. Ch. Wisconsin Elections Commission § 6.04(2), Wis. Adm. Code.
- Nomination papers with the required number of signatures must be filed with the appropriate filing officer no later than 5:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday in January (or the next day if the first Tuesday is a holiday) before the spring election. Special elections may have different filing deadlines. Check with the filing officer.
- In order for a candidate's name to be placed on the ballot, a candidate must file a Campaign Registration Statement (ETHCF-1), a Declaration of Candidacy (EL-162), and Nomination Papers (EL-169) containing the appropriate number of signatures for the office sought no later than the filing deadline. Wis. Stat. § 8.10(3). Candidates for state office and municipal judge must also file a statement of economic interests with the Wisconsin Ethics Commission by the third business day after the nomination paper filing deadline. Wis. Stat. § 19.43. If any one of these required forms is not filed by the deadline, the candidate's name will not be placed on the ballot. Wis. Stat. § 8.30.
- If a candidate or circulator has any questions, he or she should contact the filing officer.
